Deceased was on a triangle acraping the mast when the strap of one of the gantline blocks broke. It was one of the fore-brace blocks and strapped with 21 inch rope, but was kept tarred and had been exposed to the sun for a considerable time. Deceased had been five or six years in the vessel. There were two other men on he triangle with him at the time, but deceased happened to be at the corner where the strav gave way, and the other men held on and saved themselves.

Lorenzo Suliman, secunnia on board the John Adam, was on the triangle with deceased on Saturday last. At about one o'clock the Sim a how cook on board the British barque strap of the fore-brace block carried away and on deck. Witness held on to some rigging sloft. and saved himself. Deceased fell flat on his back, and was insensible for some time. Foung-Yuk-To, Chinese surgeon testified to heing called on board the John Adam on Saturturday last to see deceased. He found both the shoulder blades emashed, but the skin was, not roken. He gave him a little medicine to reany payment, deceased being a relation, he did nothing more and did not at all expect him to

Dr. Cochrine deposed that he examined the ody of deceased vesterday morning and found severe marks of bruises on the shouders and O rout of the chest, and that the lungs were very severely injured. Death evidently resulted from these injuries, which were such as might have been produced by a fall. Tho jury then returned a verdict in accordance with the facts placed before them.
